

Art from the heart at Jambo Arts show

Jambo Arts will present its fourth cross-cultural exhibition "Elmen Am Lakwe" on May 18 and 19. It will be hosted at the Bokanake Area in RRE, where the members of Jambo Arts will fill the Bokanake with new eclectic art pieces.

Ranging from the historically based traditional art of Henry Lometo, to the tribal overtones of John Alefaio, from anthropological photography of Brian Sarkozy and the Majuro Co-Op photography class, to the eclectic styled jewelry of Raychelle Heath, and the recycled fabric bags of Meriam Dragon. From the sculptures of Sonny Boy Orsolino, to the watercolors of Becky Lathrop, and the inspiring arts of the Junior Jambos. It will all be there.

As the exhibit opens at 10am, students can get in and look into the wild array of colorful art. They can ask questions and interact with the artists until the closing at 3pm. With the sunset as the backdrop, the exhibit will reopen to an evening of entertainment, refreshments, and pupus. As a part of the event, Jambo Arts organizers will provide entertainment including the mellow sounds of Niten Anni and his guitar, the resonating sounds of the Marshall Islands Gospel Choir, and poetry readings from Kathy Jetnil and Raychelle Heath.

Daryle Newman believes the success of this event can be shared by the entire RMI community, due in large part to the dedication and professionalism of the Jambo Arts committee leaders who each hold themselves accountable to a particular facet of the organization.

Daryle also acknowledges the generous support of many kind local businesses that help in the success of Jambo Arts events. With all gratitude Jambo hopes that they will continue to support us in our future endeavors.

Finally Jambo is pleased to announce that on the night of the May 18 exhibit, a raffle drawing will be held. Raffle tickets can be bought from Jambo Arts members for $2 each. The prizes will be from our generous artists John Alefaio, Raychelle Heath, Becky Lathrop, Daryle Newman, and others. Artists from WAM and Youth to Youth will also contribute prizes to the raffle.

Jambo Arts will begin having open meetings again in June 2012. If you are interested in becoming an exhibiting member and/or applying for one of four committee positions please contact Daryle at 4564545.

John Alefaio with some of his works of art.

M.I.V.A

Marshall Islands
Visitors Authority

Happy 33rd Constitution Day!

From the staff and management of Marshall Islands Visitor Authority.

